Conditions of use:

The data provided to you through P-tree is for your own research purposes only and should not be placed on a website that can be accessed by the public – this data is copyright.

You are agreeing that you will take all possible care of the AFHS data which is specifically for the use of members and their families. In particular, if using a public computer, you should take care to log out when you have finished a session and close all windows and tabs that you have opened.

If you share your login details with other family members then it is your responsibility to make sure that they will also take care of the data.

By signing up to P-tree you are agreeing that other members, who have also signed up to P-tree, and are linked to the same P-sheets as you, may contact you by email if they wish. (This will be possible from P-tree using a contact option which does not reveal your email address)

I agree to the above conditions

Date

You will also need to arrange a password with Yvonne – she will contact you about that by telephone. Do not write it here. You can be thinking about it though – you need 8 to 10 characters including some numbers and upper and lower case letters.

Telephone number for Yvonne's use:

What is the best time of day to call you? (Bearing in mind time differences if you are not in the UK)
